Canwood, Saskatchewan, 1947. Leonard Flint, a boy in a small town befriends the local tramp, known as Rabbit Foot Bill. Fifteen years on, as a doctor of psychiatry, Leonard arrives at the Weyburn Mental Hospital, where he is reunited with Bill and becomes fixated on discovering what happened in 1947. Based on a true story.

England, 1580. A young Latin tutor falls in love with an eccentric young woman who is known as a healer. A luminous portrait of a marriage, a shattering evocation of a family ravaged by grief and loss, and a hypnotic recreation of the story that inspired one of the greatest literary masterpieces of all time.
