

Seniors Book Club: Winter/Spring 2024

(2nd Wednesday at 2 p.m.)

Feb. 14

2-3:30 PM

The Stranger in the Woods

by Michael Finkel

The true story of a man who lived alone in a tent in the Maine woods, never talking to another person for twenty-seven years. A riveting story of survival that asks fundamental questions about solitude, community, and what makes a good life.

Apr. 10

2-3:30 PM

Lessons in Chemistry

by Bonnie Garmus

Meet Elizabeth Zott: a one-of-a-kind scientist in 1960s California whose career takes a detour when she becomes the star of a beloved TV cooking show.

Jun. 12

2-3:30 PM

Elevation

by Stephen King

A riveting, extraordinarily eerie, and moving story about a man whose mysterious affliction brings a small town together—a timely, upbeat tale about finding common ground despite deep-rooted differences.